

1475 Oakview Drive Columbus 43235

First Floor Renovation

Making the confined first floor open and more usable was the goal for this Worthington Hills home. The kitchen/dining area was opened up by removing multiple walls, tripling cabinet and counter space in the process. A reconfigured first-floor laundry, an integrated work space, and wet bar enhance the final product.